

NOTE: FORENSIC RESEARCH AND INVESTIGATION INTO THE ORIGIN OF AN ALLEGED X HANDLE OF THE CURRENT INEC CHAIRMAN, BASED ON THE REVELATION THAT, HE HAS NEVER OPENED, CREATED, REGISTERED OR OPERATED ANY X ACCOUNT, INCLUDING THE ONE CURRENTLY BEING IMPERSONATED AS PROF. JOASH OJO AMUPITAN, WITH A DIFFERENT EMAIL ADDRESS.

CAVEAT: This is an independent forensic research publication and does not in any way, undermine any other independent or ongoing group investigations, both by government or any other private individual, that seeks to unravel the truth behind this brouhaha. It is a hypothetical conclusion, based on empirical forensic ventures. It does not claim inferiority or superiority knowledge over any ongoing investigation in respect of this subject matter. Sophisticated tools were consulted and adopted during this forensic research, with some blend of common sense, lay man investigation exposure, to reveal the outcome, for the benefits of all. Therefore, every other patient and more attentive person, can arrive at the same conclusion with unbiased outcome. Consequently, in order to appreciate this forensic research diagnosed analysis, you as a reader must ensure that, your mind is pure and opened to learning, before agreeing or disagreeing with the revelations herein. Meaning, your mind must be in a state of tabula rasa.

KEY NOTE: In the X or Twitter Space, one thing is constant that can never be changed or tempered with, and that is the User ID. It can never be changed, but the Name, User Name or ID Name on X or Twitter can be changed anytime, anyhow, while maintaining the same USER ID.

Introduction:

This forensic research, arose as a result of the purported appearance of an X (Twitter) handle described as:

@joashamupitan allegedly registered or associated with a purported GROK e-mail address amupitan@yahoo.com without an “@”.

It therefore means that, all our expositions herein, shall be centered around the purported posts (“Victory is sure”, “They are evil in the 21st century”, “Asiwaju”) over an X handle “@joashamupitan”, made with the X ID 567086242164101120, which was allegedly changed to @Sundayvibe002, then relabeled as a Parody Account, before it was locked/deleted.

The historical trail of what transpired, for readers’ independent personal tracing of the primary and secondary sources of the initial and subsequent publications, leading to the misinformation or fake circulations of the SCREENSHOTS of certain posts (“Victory is sure”, “They are evil in the 21st century”, “Asiwaju”) at hand, purportedly showing that, Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan SAN made them, in sympathy to APC government and this current President, are reproduced below. In the course of this expository, searches, munches and posts of previous certain persons that made it easily possible, for people to be deceived will be copied, pasted and interrogated, in order to reveal the trick used or adopted by the mischiefs, beginning with social media, post

Many questions sir.

Did you win your "Igbo dominated area" by convincing them that your candidate deserves a second term?

Did they suddenly have a change of heart despite constantly voting in the opposition?

The Pro-Chancellor

Professor Joash Ojo Amupitan was inaugurated as the university's second Pro-Chancellor/Chairman of The Council during the 48th meeting of the Governing Council of Joseph Ayo Babalola University, on 6th December 2023. He is a well-known legal expert who joined the position with more than thirty years of academic and professional experience.

In addition to his PhD in Law from the University of Jos, Professor Amupitan holds degrees as a Bachelor of Law,

Expositions From 1 above on the alleged "Victory is sure", post:

Dayo Isreal's Post on X handle was made at exactly 4:18pm, on March, 18, 2023, and 4:09pm on his Facebook Page with the same name as Dayo Israel on the same, March, 18, 2023. The first person by name Henry Eke, commented to the said Dayo Israel's post on X, at exactly 4:22pm (i.e 4 minutes after it was posted), while Waheed Afolabi on Facebook, made his comment on Dayo Israel's timeline at exactly 4:25pm (i.e 13 minutes after on FaceBook), BUT the alleged SCREENSHOT post in circulation of "Victory is sure", allegedly made with user @Joashamupitan, was purportedly made on X or Twitter at 4:05pm (i.e 13 minutes before the main post by Dayo Isreal was made). Is it humanly possible? NO! The likes, views, comments and forwarded on the said SCREENSHOTS are different, while some recording few likes irrespective of the time, it is observed that, the two 4:05pm and 16:05pm all have different Views and so on. Another exposure in addition to the previous one, is from <https://jabu.edu.ng/organogram/visitor/chancellor/pro-chancellor/>, where you will notice that, the professorial regalia used by the mischievous persons as his Display Picture on the X handle, was taken @ JABU (Joseph Ayo Babalola University), when Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan SAN, was made their Pro Chancellor in November, 2025. This was over three years from the date of the purported creation of the X handle, on 6th Day of September, 2022. The same regalia, were used across other alleged different support posts and no none of Prof's students, ever wished him happy Birthday, or congratulated him as a Pro Chancellor or even as the DVC Admin, University of Jos with the same timelines. Could "Victory is sure" post guarantee one an INEC Chair? NO!

2. <https://x.com/trigottista/status/2043005076793389171> from Harry the Die Got user with handle @trigottista the main originator and coordinator of all these sham, who claimed that the "Victory is sure" was made by 4:05pm by Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan;

The image shows a screenshot of a Twitter thread and a CV document. The thread is from Harry Da Diegot (@trigottista) and discusses a suspicious account. The CV document is for Joash Amupitan and includes a phone number 08035074099.

Twitter Thread:

Harry Da Diegot (@trigottista) As at 10th April 2026, @grok while replying to @OchiJnr said the username of the account @joashamupitan created in September 2022 is 1567086242164101120

I dare anyone of you to copy those numbers, open your Google app and search "X/Twitter ID lookup", pick your favorite one(there are plenty of them for free). It will ask you to search for a username, search for @ParodyAccoqau

1-3,7: Account joashamupitan (ID 1567086242164101120, created 6 Sep 2022) aligns with Prof. Joash Ojo Amupitan via email (amupitan@yahoo.com) on his Unijos CV. Today (10 Apr 2026), username changed to Sundayvibe00, profile locked/protected, relabeled "Parody Account," prior posts deleted after a 2023 tweet resurfaced.

4-5,9: 2023 tweet: "Victory is sure" (context: APC gubernatorial results, replied to/interacted with APC's Dayo Israel). Viral screenshots from today confirm; no Wayback captures found, but quoted/referenced widely (e.g., the Nigeria Lawyer article: thenigerialawyer.com/victory-is-sur...).

6,8: No evidence of other likes/retweets with APC figures or mass pre-2026 deletions in searches. Low activity (~23 posts) until recent official INEC statements. Gap today matches reported purge.

10: Verified via public reports, account ID, CV match. Ownership probable; tweet factual per screenshots. No speculation on

2 – 3 From @Trigottista @ OchiJnr.

The following can be seen. The above question to GROK of which email address was used in creating the X account handle @amupitanj, and the inaccuracy in the response that, it was exact personal yahoo email amupitan@yahoo.com, being a website, exposed the first inaccuracy and the impossibilities of creating an X account handle with a website or even a domain name. For all email addresses, must contain the “@” sign, as lacking in the one provided by GROK. However, Harry Da Diegot – with X handle, @Trigottista QueenBee, @Realqueenbee__, , Stevedonalds with X handle, Stevedonalds with X handle @Stevedonalds, RainFree with handle @OchiJnr, Ezeh Val with handle @MrEnugu1, and other perpetrators felt that, they have goofed, but now decided to divert the attention of their gullible followers by going to Yahoo Login Page at www.mail.yahoo.com, then typed amupitan@yahoo.com, being Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan, original, undisputed main yahoo email account, and clicked on FORGOT PASSWORD. When it displayed the Yahoo Account Two Factor Authentication (TFA) password reset from the following URL <https://login.yahoo.com/account/challenge/challenge-selector?.intl=us&.lang=en-US&src=ym&activity=mail-direct&pspid=159600001&done=https%3A%2F%2Fmail.yahoo.com%2Fd&add=1&authMechanism=primary&display=log-in&acumb=dtEoNPxC&sessionIndex=QQ--&eid=3650>. It was then munched and the displayed reset credentials from Yahoo Page and NOT on X Page, was then placed side by side, with the GROK Harry Da Diegot - @Trigottista responded questions and Prof Joash Ojos Amupitan SAN's curriculum vitae in circulation, to complete the hidden asterisks provided, to fill in the missing e-mail addresses and phone number for authentication (TFA) code to reset the Yahoo Mail. This is usually required, to enable the actual owner, gain access into his/her yahoo mail and or phone number text message associated with the account, for owner's control to change password. Noted that, without a valid e-mail address, one cannot register an X or Twitter account. The mischievous guys, wanted to hack into the main e-mail address, belonging to Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan SAN, to perfect their initial circulated claim that, Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan, has changed his handle under this X ID 1567086242164101120, from @amuoitanj, to Sundayvibe00, then rebelled it as a Parody account, before it was locked and deleted. It was not possible for them, to gain access into his email addresses and phone number to access the TFA code, so they hurriedly on the 10th day of April, 2026 by 15:05pm, 11 seconds in the United States, registered an account with ID 2042619883771338752, after they created an e-mail address Joashamupitan8466@outlook.com, with X handle as @joashamupitan, then made the display name Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan, with funny display of cars, footballers picture as the X account background display, to what is claimed to be Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan's new handle. NOTE that, this email address Joashamupitan8466@outlook.com does not belong to Prof Jaosh Ojo Amupitan SAN and it is not one of those E-mail addresses popped up by change of Yahoo Mail Password in circulation. In addition, the responses from the handler of the account @Joasamupitan and language usage or adoption of incoherent and vulgar words like, “I no go resign, you go learn, I go run you street, make you calm down, etc”, to respond to those attacking the user, on allegation of the allegation of X posts that shows loyalty to the current president and to APC, does not represent any post that he or any reasonable Professor and Senior Advocate of Nigeria can type or use to respond to anyone. These responses alone, should be a red flag to readers, as to the real owner/handler of the new account.

4. <https://x.com/RealQueenBee/status/2033240433107632433> from one Queen Bee user with handle @Realqueenbee__, on 11th day of April, 2026, claimed that “Victory is sure” was posted by Prof J O Amupitan on 18/03/2023 by 16:05pm also, while that of @Stevedonalds carried 11:05am, @Trigottista carried 4:05pm and as later, according to them, hanged in December, 2025 to Sundayvibe002, then relabeled Parody account, before it was deleted and locked. They SCREENSHOTS and forwarded other alleged posts of sympathy by Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan to APC and the current President of Nigeria, B. Ahmed Tinubu:

But @grok it was showing that the username on account @Sundayvibe00 was changed in november 2025 how true was that?

Grok @grok · 13h
Yes, that's accurate. The account (ID 1567086242164101120, created Sept 2022) changed its username from Sundayvibe00 to joashamupitan in November 2025, right after Prof. Joash Ojo Amupitan's Senate confirmation as INEC chairman in October 2025. Today (April 10, 2026), following the viral resurfacing of its 2023 pro-APC posts, it changed back to Sundayvibe00, went private/locked, and was relabeled "Parody Account." The ID itself never changed.

bàbáQba @aii_stephen · 13h
So there's a possibility of the account not really associated to the actual INEC chairman afterall? @grok

Grok @grok · 13h
Yes, the username flip-flops, account lock, and "Parody Account" label point to it not being Prof. Joash Ojo Amupitan's official handle. The shared ID (1567086242164101120) only proves it's the

Yes, joashamupitan is the real X handle of the current INEC Chairman, Professor Joash Ojo Amupitan, SAN. He was sworn in on October 23, 2025, succeeding Prof. Mahmood Yakubu. His bio matches official records from inecnigeria.org and government announcements.

Exposures From 4 dealing with: QueenBee, @Realqueenbee__, Harry Da Diegot - @Trigottista, Stevedonalds with X handle, @Stevedonalds, RainFree with handle @OchiJnr, Ezeh Val with handle @MrEnugu1, and the host of others, decided to create a bitmap, typed all these statements – (“Victory is sure”, “They are evil in the 21st century”, “Asiwaju”) and made them go viral.

It is clear from the differences in time on the SCREENSHOT pictures with the current Dayo Isreal’s handle @dayoisrael (Juxtapositions of the original post by 4:18pm from Dayo Israel’s X handle @Dayoisrael, his Facebook post of similar message by 4:09pm, with the SCREENSHOT post of alleged “Victory is sure” by Harry, at 4:05pm, QueenBee by 16:05pm and Stevedonalds by 11:05am (i.e even before the announcement of the winner)), that, there was never any post sent by anyone, including that of Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan, whose user name was changed. GROK agreed with this that, there is no X account created, registered or opened with amupitanj@yahoo.com, joashamupitan@yahoo.com, amupitanj@unijos.edu.ng et, let alone deleted. You can do well to search through commonly known perimeter search engines, such as Google Ai, ChatGPT, YahooAI, Gemini, and other AI Search tools that are highly rated for professional use, to see for yourself that, there is no account created or registered in any of the e-mail addresses till today. These search engines store wide arrays of data or information, used in responding to feeds or questions inputted, more than GROK built specifically for X Users. Those AI search engines, cannot be easily manipulated like GROK, and they will tell you in clear and plain language of YES OR NO, backed with simple explanation, with options for more.

For example, the followings are the details of the X handle of the persons behind the handle of the persons behind the criminal posts and unlawful calling, for the resignation of the INEC Chairman:

@Realqueenbee__, was created using the following e-mail address: Realqueenbee7225@hotmail.com

@Stevedonalds was created using the following e-mail address: Stevedonalds4124@hotmail.com

@Trigottista was created using the following e-mail address: Trigottista17703@hotmail.com

@ochiJnr was created using the following e-mail address: OchiJnr2313@hotmail.com

@MrEnugu1 was created using the following e-mail address: Mrenugu322@hotmail.com

- Waziri with X handle @Ahmadwazirikk, also claimed that, the INEC Chairman's account, was changed severally to a final name, Sundayvibe00, signifying how the INEC Chairman intends to manipulate election results. These statements, were made by him, without proof or justifications, despite that, GROK provided a website amupitan@yahoo.com without an "@" as the e-mail address used in creating the said @joashamupitan X handle account, and equally said that the viral post is a SCREENSHOT.

The INEC chairman has denied that the X account @joashamupitan belongs to him.

But an investigation by Grok found that the email used to create the account is the same email on his official CV.

The X account @joashamupitan (account ID: 1567086242164101120) was created on September 6, 2022. The controversial "Victory is sure" post was made in 2023, approximately six to twelve months after the account was created.

The account was tied to the email address amupitan@yahoo.com the same personal Yahoo email listed on Professor Amupitan's publicly available Curriculum Vitae from his time as a

6. Bashir Ahmad OON, via <https://x.com/BashirAhmaad/status/2042927701829308767> claimed GROK confirmed that, the ID 1567086242164101120 allegedly belonging to Prof J O Amupitan was created on 6/09/2022, but it was never changed in November 2025, until 10/04/2026 when it was updated to Sundayvibe00 and the user locked/protected after, it labelled it as a Parody account. It is troubling that, despite the revelation that, the purported original account never changed, but they kept feeding GROK with leading questions (i.e garbage in and garbage out style) to further distort the reality and misinform the general public. So that, the call for the resignation of the INEC Chairman, on pure false and fabricated narratives, fully known by them, will be intensified.

From 5 - 6, X handle, @Ahmadwazirikk and Bashir Ahmad OON, with handle @BashirAhmaad. These users without verifications and in a hurry to be more mischievous, decided to feed GROK with leading questions to enable them, confuse their unsuspecting followers, having seen the posts from QueenBee, @Realqueenbee__, Harry Da Diegot - @Trigottista, Stevedonalds with X handle, @Stevedonalds, RainFree with handle @OchiJnr, Ezeh Val with handle @MrEnugu1, and the host of others on – (“Victory is sure”, “They are evil in the 21st century”, “Asiwaju”).

Having established that, it was a mischievous post that they followed to further misinform the general public, there will not be need to repeat some obvious already answered distortions here, but to expose how other unanswered misinformation in their posts. For example, the alleged ID 1567086242164101120 registered on 6th September, 2022, as joashamupitan, before changing from username joashamupitan, in November, 2025, then updated to Sundayvibe00 and relabeled Parody before it was locked or protected. From a forensic search of the users: @Joashamupitan, and @Sundayvibe00 relabeled Parody Account will reveal the different ID Numbers, registered email addresses, dates, times, number of followers, post and so, if it ever existed. For example:

@Joashamupitan X ID is 2042619883771338752, email address is Joashamupitan8466@outlook.com, 1 following / 3382 follower and created in United States on Fri Apr 10 15:05:11 +0000 2026.

@Sundayvibe00 X ID is 2042971825039114242, e-mail address is Sundayvibe80@outlook.com, 2 following / 16 follower created in Nigeria, Apr 11 14:23:44 + 0000 2026.

I will use the same medium, to reveal the historical credentials of the User Names mentioned here, for them to disprove any link to the credentials.

From the above pattern and exposures of the trick deployed by these persons, who are trying to for no justifiable or verifiable reasons, want to tarnish the image of someone who has worked hard to build himself, up to the highest levels in all his careers, as a Civil Servant, an Academic, a Teacher, an Administrator and a Lawyer, should be condemned by all well-meaning human beings all over the world, especially Nigerians. The tricksters, know exactly what they doing. The above listed X handles know that, they are mis-informing the general public by the distortions, misinformation and propagation of this false information, by withholding the reality, just for their personal or sponsored aggrandizement. For example, putting the right information for proper analysis and adequate conclusion, should be encouraged, just as the followings are the X handle details of some of the persons directly involved as stated above and those who have ignorantly relied on the shared misinformation, including those who do not have active X handle, to call for the Resignation of Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan SAN, as Chairman of Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC), for no justifiable or verifiable reasons, or properly digging deep into the issue:

Conclusion:

Some well-meaning Nigerians at different fora, rightly suggested for Digital Footprint tracing on the X handle @Joashamupitan purportedly registered with amupitanj@yahoo.com. This in the case at hand is not possible because, there is no existing X handle, registered with any of Prof Joash Ojo Amupitan SAN personally owned email addresses (i.e amupitanj@yahoo.com, amupitan@unijos.edu.ng). Therefore, any forensic Digital Footprint search or tracing on any of his personally owned existing email addresses, will lead to a zero variable. The only call that is feasible and tenable at the moment is to trace, arrest, interrogate and where possible prosecute the persons involved in this dastard acts, beginning with the handle users- Trigottista, MrEnugu1, QueenBee, Stevedonalds, OchiJnr, etc under the Cybercrimes (Prohibition, Prevention, etc.) Act, 2015 as amended in 2024, The Terrorism (Prevention and Prevention) Act 2022, Criminal and Penal Codes Act, NITDA Code of Practice for Interactive Computer etc, Nigeria Data Protection Act 2023.
